

BURSARY APPLICATION FORM | www.moorestephens.co.za

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your enquiry for a Bursary at Moore Stephens and below are the guidelines for qualifying for a bursary:

The bursary is only for students studying towards a CTA degree and who wish to qualify as a CA. The bursary covers all university fees, excluding books and residence costs. To be considered for a bursary you should:

- Be a resident of South Africa
- Have obtained an "A" for Maths and Accounting in Matric.
- Be registered for a Bachelor of Commerce degree at a SAICA accredited University.
- Maintain a 60% average for Accounting and Tax in 3rd year at university
- Be a self-confident achiever, and
- Have held various leadership positions.

If you are successful with your bursary application and after completing your studies at university you will join our dynamic team of Trainee Accountants, and work towards qualifying as a Chartered Accountant (SA).
